The 'Sacred Union' Labyrinth

What is 'The Love Feast'?

- ♥ a two day immersion in Sacred Union, creative processes and deep honouring
- ♥ a 'road map' for conscious relating and longevity for any type of relationship
- ♥ an 'audit' of self and relationship
- ♥ an everlasting process that sets the foundation for clarity, honesty and transparency with ease and support
- ♥ a sacred pathway for divine connection through time and across space
- ♥ a foundation to always come back to
- ♥ space to focus, honour and share with each other and go deeply within
- ♥ powerful tools for the journey of life

Cost: $480 (Waged) or $380 (concession) per person. Includes twin share rooms with beds joined together if desired (only 2 double beds available) plus delicious, nutritious, vegetarian food and a Sat. evening feast. Please bring yummy healthy treats to share.

Robin Clayfield

An author, facilitator, trainer, musician and Grandma, Robin has a passion for creative facilitation, ceremony, empowerment work, Permaculture, Deep Ecology and community co-operation. She is delighting in sacred union and the divine dance of relationship with Mark. She feels strongly to share the gifts that are birthed through their connection and their commitment to dive deeply and transparently into the fullness and richness of LOVE, hand in hand with the Beloved in us all.

NOTE: It is important to come with your partner or someone you are prepared to share and dive deeply with. We will be immersed from 5pm Friday till 5pm Sunday in a nurturing, honouring, gentle, luscious, creative and sacred environment.

Mark Healy

A self confessed 'pure joy advocate', Mark is a breath therapist, lover of deep connection, facilitator and organizer of men's work, creator of labyrinths and sacred journeys, gardener, designer and installation artist. Mark is passionate about connecting people with nature through the love of gardening with shapes and symbols and walking the sacred path called life. He is the father of 7 children and a few extras and is committed to Divine Union with Robin and himself.
